

Anita M. Weiss

Professor, Department of International Studies
(Participating Faculty in Asian Studies, PPPM, Religious Studies, & Sociology)
5206 University of Oregon
Eugene, OR 97403-5206 USA
(541) 346-3245; FAX: (541) 346-5041 aweiss@uoregon.edu
(542) Please see my new website, at:
(543) <https://blogs.uoregon.edu/anitaweiss/>

Education

Ph.D. (Sociology), University of California at Berkeley (1983) M.A. (Sociology), University of California at Berkeley (1976) B.A. (Sociology & South Asian Studies), Rutgers University (1975)
Special Certificate in Asian Studies Award, Rutgers University (1975)

Summary of Interests

Culture and Development in Pakistan; Social Change and Political Transformations in Pakistan;
Comparative International Development; Development and Human Rights; Gender and International Development; Political Islam; Religion and Social Change; Sociology of South Asia;
Women, Legal Reform and Social Change in the Muslim World

Courses and Seminars

☀ INTL 422/522: Aid to Developing Countries Spring 2019

☀ INTL 423/ 523: Development and the Muslim World

☀ INTL 640: Gender Analysis in Development Planning
Special Graduate Reading seminar last taught in Spring 2017

☀ INTL 421/ 521: Gender and International Development
Now being taught by Yvonne Braun

☀ INTL 448/ 548: Bollywood's Lens on Indian Society Fall 2019

☀ INTL 399 Islam and Global Forces Fall 2015 INTL 399 Pakistan & Afghanistan: Connecting the

Problems and the Solutions Taught in Summer 2012 ☀ INTL 407/507 Militant Islam Fall 2019

☀ INTL 656 Proseminar: Research & Writing in International Studies (IS graduate students only)

no longer being taught

☀ INTL 607 Graduate Core Seminar (IS graduate students only)

☀ INTL 442/ 542: South Asia : Development and Social

Change Spring 2019

☀ INTL 407/507 Women's Movements around the World (formerly taught in summer)